Nelson Bailliett of Baker City

Who Sold Stock in a "Hole in the Ground" Indicted.

Charged With Using the Mails to Defraud.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 25.—The trial of Nelson Bailliett, a mine owner of Baker City, Oregon, was begun this morning in the United States federal court. Bailliett was indicted two years ago on a charge of using the United States mails to defraud by sending out copies of Baker City papers and circulars advertising the White Swan gold mine at that place advertising the mine as a lucrative property. The prosecution claims the mine is worthless and that Bailliett has realized a quarter of a million dollars by selling stock in what they call only a "hole in the ground."

Bailliett is a son of Judge S. F. Bailliett, of Des Moines. He resided some time in San Francisco, and is now virtually owner of the Baker City Oregon Herald. Witnesses here from San Francisco, Portland, Salem, Baker City, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

BRIGANDS WILL MURDER

Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka

On January First if the Original Ransom be Not Soon Paid.

The Sofia People Don't Believe They'll Do It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Commenting on the report that the brigands have sent a message to American Diplomatic Agent Dickinson that unless he accedes by January 1 to their original demand for 25,000 Turkish lira, or pounds ($11,000) ransom, they will kill both their captives—Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mrs. Tsilka, the Sofia, Bulgaria, correspondent of the World says:

This report comes in private advices from Dabnitz, the Bulgarian frontier town which is the present headquarters of some of the secret agents through whom Mr. Dickinson has been communicating with the brigands. The message is said to be the robbers answer to the ultimatum reported to have been sent to them by Mr. Dickinson (but which he denied sending), offering as ransom 12,000 Turkish lira or pounds ($52,800) and no more and giving them until next Saturday to accept that sum, after which time that and all previous offers would be withdrawn.

Mr. Dickinson, who was the United States Consul General at Constantinople when he was appointed diplomatic agent at Sofia, went to Constantinople immediately after the report became current, that he had sent an ultimatum and he is still there. The report that the brigands will kill their prisoners is not believed at Sofia.

LIPTON'S MANLY SPEECH

While Being Dined at Hotel Cecil.

He Eulogizes American Fair Play.

"Hands Across the Sea" No Idle Phrase.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A dispatch from London quotes Sir Thomas Lipton as commenting on his treatment in America upon the occasion of his address at the dinner at the Hotel Cecil in the following language:

No words of mine can exaggerate the admirable manner in which the course was kept clear for the yacht race or the gentlemanly, sportsmanlike men turned out to me by the New York Yacht Club. American yachtsmen and the American people did everything for me save give me the cup. They loaded the Erin with mascots, horse shoes, lucky spiders and other things which were supposed to bring luck. Unfortunately they did not.

"It is gratifying to me to think perhaps the races have done something to increase the good feeling between the people of the United States of America and this country."

"I am well able to say from personal experience that nowhere else in the world can there be found people so hospitable and generous. I can never forget the kindness I met with in America. It proved to me beyond doubt that hands across the sea is not a mere idle phrase, but Englishmen and Americans are of the same kith and kin."

RUSSIAN BANK WILL TRY

To Recover Embezzled Money in Fresno.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 25.—Suit was begun today by E. L. Zeefe, and Company of Rostov-on-the-Don, in the Empire of Russia, through their attorneys to recover $4657; a part of the 25,000 roubles alleged to have been embezzled on March 6, 1901, by Simon Ivanov Grin, who is said to have come to America subsequently. The defendant in the action besides Grin is the State National Bank and Trust Company of Los Angeles. A temporary injunction has been issued against the bank pending adjudication. The money was deposited in the name of Valentine Semaska which it is alleged was an alias assumed by Grin, who arrived here several weeks ago.

NO ONE WAS TO BLAME

For the Smuggler Union Mine Disaster.

TELLURIDE, Colo., Nov. 25.—The coroner's jury that investigated the Smuggler Union mine disaster has found a verdict exonerating the officers of the company from blame, but censuring some minor officials for not promptly closing the tunnel entrance after the fire started.

KITCHENER BEING BLAMED

For Misrepresenting Villiersdorff Engagement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Commenting upon the military situation in South Africa, the London correspondent of the Tribune says: Lord Kitchener's belated explanations of Major Fisher's engagement at Villiersdorff are received with impatience by the military critics. The first reports were entirely misleading and the incident on the whole was favorable to the Boers.

Their settled policy is to keep up a semblance of hostilities by avoiding a general engagement at any point and by sweeping down unexpectedly on exposed outposts and rear guards and making a successful attack. They hope in this way to wear out the British army and taxpayers. There is a growing feeling in military circles that Lord Kitchener has not yet hit upon an effective method of countering these ingenious tactics.

OREGON CAMERA CLUB

Exhibits by Mrs. Jessie Beardsley Reed, Formerly of Salem.

The Oregon Camera club is holding its seventh annual exhibit in the club-rooms in the Oregonian building in Portland this week. The exhibit includes 302 pictures, showing an infinite variety of studies in the landscapes, marines, genres and portraits; also scenes of home life, ocean, mountain and field views; and an endless collection of animal pictures. The entire work of finishing and enlarging is done entirely by amateurs, mostly members of the club.

The rooms have been made beautiful by the artistic arrangement of the pictures, all of which are framed, and by the decorations. Flags and bunting are suspended from the ceiling, and flowers, ferns and potted plants grace the nooks and corners. These latter are from the hot house of Mrs. Chas. E. Ladd. A. Gavin, president of the club, superintended this work.

Thirty-three members of the club have exhibits on the walls. One of the best is that of E. D. Jorgensen, who shows ten European views; compelling castles on the Rhine and in Bavaria, scenes on the Mediterranean and the Swiss Alps. Ten views of Oregon scenery are by L. C. Henriksen and ten nature pictures are by Mrs. C. E. Ladd. Of especial interest to all visitors from the Capital City are ten pictures by a former Salem woman, Jessie Beardsley Reed. She is spoken of as a rising amateur artist, and her work receives high praise.

HOW THE BANK WAS ROBBED

The Methods of the Liverpool Wreckers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Concerning the Liverpool bank trouble the London correspondent of the Tribune cables:

The appearance of the pugilist Burge in Bow Street as the alleged accomplice of the book keeper, Goudie, of the Bank of Liverpool was the first stroke of Inspector Forest who has taken charge of this remarkable bank robbery. The coolness of Goudie was phenomenal, for when the detective accountant was trying to trace a missing check for £9,000, the book keeper is reported to have made a false entry with a fresh pen and is said to have walked out of the bank. All the details are now known as to the methods pursued by Goudie and his confederates in the colossal bank frauds at Liverpool. Goudie knew the nature of the accounts in his ledger, and became familiar with the customers' checks. He is said to have supplied expert forgers outside with information as to the amounts that would pass without exciting suspicion. The checks were forged on this information, crossed and honored in due course by the Bank of Liverpool.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—Capt. Hill of the steamship Belgenland from Liverpool reported that when the steamship was a breast o' Nantucket light early yesterday Mrs. H. McNeal, wife of Dr. McNeal of Ann Arbor, Mich., was washed overboard by an immense wave. The body was not again seen.

INDIAN VICEROY SCORED

Lord Curzon Opposed by Military Blockheads.

Charged With Entertaining Too Liberal Views.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Lord Curzon has not escaped the usual fate of Viceroy of India. He has been sharply criticized by the official and military class for disregarding the precedents of British Administration in India and showing undue consideration for native rights and interests. Public attention here is preoccupied with South Africa and controversies in line with those raised when Lord Ripon was Viceroy have escaped observation.

Lord Curzon, when he went to India, was in closer touch with all questions relating to the Oriental races than his predecessors had been, and naturally was not prepared to follow official traditions at all points. nor accept blindly military views of Indian policy; hence he has been reproached for meddling with race questions, encouraging native ambitions and unsettling the established order of administration.

The discussion has been confined mainly to India and the resistance offered by the military martinet and British residents has not attracted general attention here. Lord Curzon's lack of reverence for red tape will be accounted a virtue by those worn out with the mechanical processes of the administration of the War Office and other public services.

TO PRAY FOR THE SOULS

Of Boers and Filipinos who Died Fighting

NEW YORK Nov. 25.—Rev. Joseph F. Mendi, Rector of the church of the Immaculate Conception at Montclair, N. J., announces that at 8 p. m., Thursday he will celebrate a high mass of requiem for the repose of the souls of the Filipinos "who died fighting for the rights of their country," and the Catholics who have been slain fighting with the Boers in South Africa.

Father Mendi said the mass was intended as a tribute to those who had died in the defense of their homes and families. It is also in the nature of a protest, he said, against the acts of both American and English Governments.

GREAT BRITAIN APPROVES

The Landing of Yankee Bluejackets

At Colon--Continental Powers May Be Not so Friendly.

Americans May Some Time Land to Stay.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Concerning the troubles on the Isthmus of Panama, the London correspondent of the Tribune says:

The temporary occupation of the Isthmian railway line by the United States troops is regarded with approval in London. It is recognized that America is acting in accordance with her diplomatic rights, but it is by no means certain that the continental powers look on the matter with a friendly eye.

"Continental apprehension," remarks the Telegraph, "is so far justified that the time must come sooner or later when the American forces will land to stay."

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—According to the Colon correspondent of the Herald, General Alban has been slightly wounded in a battle with the Revolutionists. His horse was killed under him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The State Department reports that the traffic is moving unimpeded at Panama.

Latest From Colon.

Colon, Nov. 25.—The Colombian gunboat, General Pinzon, reappeared at Colon Harbor this morning. Her commander said there were only 100 out of the original 600 troops carried by the vessel now on board of the gunboat. The others have been landed at Porto Belo, about 10 miles distant from Colon. The presumption is that they are marching overland to join the government forces under General Alban, now at Mamei. The Panama railroad steamer Orizaba, from New York, arrived at Colon this morning with 100 marines to relieve time expired men of the United States battleship Iowa, now at Panama. The marines were taken to Panama by train.
